

JOURNEY HOME

We hope you've had an enjoyable summer with vacation time and a break from your usual routine and maybe some traveling like we've done.

It was a long car ride home from Michigan back to Texas especially with stops along the way. Our time in Upper Michigan was filled with seeing friends and enjoying 4th of July activities and other festivals as part of our vacation time. After spending a few weeks there we left for home.

On our way home we stopped to see friends in Arkansas and to spend time with son Tony. We then traveled to see Dick's mom near Oklahoma City. At 95 years of age she was delighted to have company to break up her long days living in a skilled nursing facility.

All of us who know the Lord are on our way "home", aren't we? As it says in Hebrews "For this world is not our permanent home; we are looking forward to a home yet to come." Some of us will arrive sooner than others, but for each of us our future is secure.

We have spent over 32 years contributing to the important ministry of bringing God's precious Word to those without it, so they too can have a secure future, with a journey "home" at the end of their earthly lives.

Dick has been busy helping the elderly missionaries who live in our apartment building (and elsewhere) with their computer problems. Since there are about 70 people residing in our building, he is kept quite busy. He is contributing in other ways also.

Cheryl is involved in several ways including assisting new residents by meeting with each one to give them a helpful packet of material as well as an informative tour. She also is planning on spending more time visiting and praying for those who are lonely, need a listening ear, or are dealing with health issues.

As you well know, this journey through life can be fraught with many challenges as we travel along on our way "home", but we trust you are staying close to the Lord on your journey and that you are experiencing His blessings in many ways.
